

14010 180th Ave NE - Redmond

Partial List of Plants

Edible landscaping

Chojuro - Asian pear
20th Century - Asian pear
Bartlett - European pear
Methley - purple plum
Shiro - golden plum
Gravenstein - apple
Desert King - fig
Brown Turkey - fig
Mulberry
Goumi berry
Kiwi
Blueberries - evergreen and deciduous
Raspberries
Strawberries
Aronia berry

Collector's plants, plants of interest

Franklinia tree, fall blooming
Seven Son Flower tree, fragrant late summer blooms
Clerodendron tree - unique fragrant summer flowers; leaves smell like peanut butter when rubbed
Stewartia trees, July flowers
Japanese Snowbell tree, fragrant flowers
Corkscrew willow Redbud tree, pink flowers Coral bark
Japanese maple trees, red twigs in winter
Kousa dogwood, June flowers
Champagne smoke tree Pink Dawn viburnum tree, fragrant in December - February
Double file viburnums, white flowers
Ceanothus California lilac, prolific scented blue blossoms
Hydrangea aspera (velvet leaves), pink and white lacecaps
Hydrangeas - red, white, blue, limelight varieties
Mahonia Arthur Menzies, fragrant yellow winter blossoms
Umbrella pine tree
Fan palm Edgeworthia, fragrant in winter
Choisya, Mexican mock orange - fragrant white flowers